BIOGRAPHY

Rodney Hunsinger is a trial lawyer whose state and federal litigation practice focuses on general civil defense litigation and business and commercial litigation.

His experience includes the representation of clients in class action lawsuits; disputes involving mass torts, product liability, aviation, banking and finance, construction, oil and gas, insurance defense litigation, automobile dealership law and regulation; and other general litigation matters. He has special expertise in the areas of aviation defense, automobile dealership defense, and the defense of wrongful death and serious injury claims.

His clients include auction companies, auto dealerships, aviation companies, banks and finance companies, construction companies, insurance companies, oil and gas companies and service providers, foundation repair companies, and a broad range of product manufacturers and distributors.

Rodney's achievements have earned him inclusion in Oklahoma Super Lawyers' list of "Oklahoma Rising Stars" (business litigation, general litigation, aviation), which recognizes the state's top up-and-coming attorneys.

Rodney holds an undergraduate degree in accounting and has been a certified public accountant since 2002.
