BIOGRAPHY

Bebe Thompson's extensive career in real estate began in 1977 and spans three states. She originally came to work for McAfee & Taft in 1983 as a paralegal for the firm's real estate attorneys. After leaving the firm in 1987, Bebe first went to work for a Colorado-based title company and then a national title insurance company in Arizona, where she added to her already extensive experience in commercial real estate. After moving back to Oklahoma in 2003, Bebe returned to work at McAfee & Taft in the spring of 2007.

In her current role, Bebe provides paralegal support to the firm's real estate and business transaction attorneys. Bebe assists with commercial real estate transactions, asset acquisitions, mergers and other complex business transactions. Additionally, she assists in the area of corporate law.

Bebe graduated from Oklahoma City University in 1977 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and a minor in psychology.
