

Maree Adams

Paralegal

(918) 574-3070 | maree.adams@mcafeetaft.com | Tulsa

Overview

Maree Adams began her legal career in 1989 and currently serves as a paralegal for McAfee & Taft trial lawyers engaged in complex commercial litigation, insurance claims and coverage disputes, product liability defense, mass torts and class actions, and multidistrict litigation. Her responsibilities include conducting research, preparing and filing pleadings, coordinating and managing discovery, reviewing medical records, coordinating experts and witnesses, organizing and summarizing documents, scheduling depositions, preparing cases for trial, and providing litigation support at trial.

Prior to joining McAfee & Taft, Maree developed extensive career experience working in the areas of personal injury, product liability, nursing home negligence, and insurance litigation.

Maree attended the legal assistant program at Tulsa Community College and is a graduate of Dickinson Business College.

Maree and her husband own a small cattle operation south of Tulsa, Oklahoma.