Overview

Judy Ames is a paralegal for the firm's worldwide aircraft financing, title and registration practice and a member of a team specifically dedicated ensuring that client interests in aircraft, engines and helicopters are protected and in compliance with the Cape Town Convention on Mobile Interests in Mobile Equipment and the Aircraft Protocol. Her responsibilities include obtaining priority search certificates, requesting and consenting to professional user authority, and registering all forms of interest on the International Registry.

Judy joined McAfee & Taft's Aviation Group in 2007 and has a varied and lengthy work background in the legal industry supporting attorneys whose practices included complex corporate litigation, trust and estate planning, oil and gas title work, and the representation of Oklahoma-based insurance companies.

The Oklahoma native attended the University of Oklahoma as a history major.
