Overview

Eleanor Burg is a transactional lawyer whose practice encompasses a broad range of corporate and business matters, including business entity formation and organization, mergers and acquisitions, asset and stock acquisitions and divestitures, transaction financing, contract negotiations, and the development and sale of real estate.

Eleanor graduated with honors from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2018, where she served as managing editor of the Oklahoma Law Review, was a director on the Board of Advocates, was a member of the ABA National Appellate Advocacy Team, and was named to the Order of the Barristers. She was also the recipient of the Oklahoma Bar Association's Outstanding Third-Year Student Award and the Joel Jankowsky Award, which recognizes the graduating student who exemplifies the highest standard of excellence in leadership, scholarship, and selfless service to others.

While an undergraduate, Eleanor completed a summer internship in the congressional office of U.S. Representative Dan Boren as part of the Ewing Fellowship Program at the University of Oklahoma. After graduating cum laude with a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Oklahoma and prior to entering law school, Eleanor worked as a legal assistant for a law firm in San Antonio, TX.
