Overview

Madison Dishman is a transactional attorney who advises businesses, entrepreneurs, investors and property owners on a wide range of corporate and commercial matters. Her practice includes entity formation and governance, contract drafting and negotiation, mergers and acquisitions, asset and stock acquisitions and sales, transaction financing, commercial leasing, and the acquisition, disposition and development of real estate.

Madison earned her bachelor's degree in psychology with distinction from the University of Oklahoma in 2023 and graduated summa cum laude from Oklahoma City University School of Law in 2026. During law school, she served as assistant resource editor of the Oklahoma City University Law Review and as an academic fellow, was active in the Sports, Property and Entertainment Law Association and Phi Delta Phi legal honor society, and earned seven CALI Excellence for the Future Awards.

Outside of her legal practice, Madison is an accomplished musician who performed as an oboist with the University of Oklahoma Wind Symphony, Symphony Band, and All-State Intercollegiate Band. While attending law school, she also served as an adjunct professor at the University of Central Oklahoma's Academy of Contemporary Music.

An Oklahoma native, Madison lives in Oklahoma City with her partner, Brooke, and their three cats, Fig, Luna and Cassie.
