

Amy George

Paralegal

(405) 228-7618 | amy.george@mcafeetaft.com | Oklahoma City

Overview

Amy George serves as a paralegal with the firm's Labor & Employment Group, where her responsibilities include drafting and filing pleadings, conducting research, coordinating depositions and mediations, preparing Freedom of Information Act requests, reviewing and organizing discovery documents, creating chronologies, and preparing and organizing documents and exhibits for trial.

In addition to previously working as a legal assistant at McAfee & Taft prior to being named a paralegal in 2019, her diverse prior career experience includes working in the financial services, healthcare, retail and real estate development industries.

Amy is a member of the Central Oklahoma Association of Legal Assistants (COALA).