Overview

Grace Hall is a transactional lawyer whose practice encompasses a broad range of business and commercial matters, including business entity formation and organization, contract negotiations and drafting, transaction financing, stock and asset acquisitions and sales, and merger transactions. She also counsels business clients on corporate governance and compliance matters. Her achievements have earned her inclusion in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America (business organizations (including LLCs and partnerships)).

Grace devotes a portion of her practice to counseling healthcare organizations, licensed practitioners, and other providers and suppliers on a broad range of healthcare issues, including Stark and anti-kickback compliance, fraud and abuse, Medicare and Medicaid compliance, HIPAA compliance and health privacy, internal and government audits and investigations, controlled substances laws, licensure and accreditation issues, and other state and federal regulatory requirements. She also represents clients in industry-related business transactions, including contract drafting and review, business formation and organization, asset and stock purchases and sales, healthcare facility development and financing, and related transactional due diligence.

Grace graduated summa cum laude with her bachelor's degree in philosophy from Loyola University Chicago in 2021 and went on to graduate with honors from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2024. As an undergraduate, she worked as a volunteer law clerk for the Oklahoma County District Attorney's Office. While pursuing her Juris Doctor, she served as managing editor of the Oklahoma Law Review and was member of the Organization for the Advancement of Women in Law and the Phi Delta Phi legal honor society. Following graduation, she was named to the Order of the Coif.
