

William J. Holland

Attorney

(918) 574-3027 | will.holland@mcafeetaft.com | Tulsa

Overview

Will Holland's practice is primarily focused on the resolution of complex business disputes, including the defense of manufacturers of leading consumer and commercial products in high-stakes product liability lawsuits as well as the defense of insurance companies in bad faith actions, in state and federal courts and in arbitration and mediation proceedings. As part of his litigation practice, he has been responsible for responding to complex institutional discovery requests, including through eDiscovery.

A portion of his practice is devoted to assisting public and private companies, with a particular emphasis on those in the financial services sector, with a myriad of corporate governance, regulatory compliance, securities, and risk management issues.

As a member of the firm's Cybersecurity and Data Privacy Group, Will also advises clients on privacy and information security legal and regulatory compliance, including the development and implementation of legally compliant privacy and security programs, the investigation of potential breaches, and best practices for responding to data breaches and cyberattacks.

Will earned his Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US) designation from the International Association of Privacy Professionals and has developed expertise on a broad range of federal and state privacy and cybersecurity laws, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, the California Consumer Privacy Act, and the New York Department of Financial Services cybersecurity regulations.
