Overview

As a paralegal for the firm's worldwide aircraft financing, title and registration practice, Tess Jones works with McAfee & Taft's aviation attorneys to ensure client interests in aircraft, engines and helicopters are protected and in compliance with the Cape Town Convention on International Interests in Mobile Equipment and the Aircraft Protocol. In addition to registering all forms of interests with the International Registry of Mobile Assets (IR), she is responsible for requesting and consenting to professional user authority, obtaining priority search certificates from the IR, and revising title memoranda to include current registrations on the IR.

The Oklahoma native's broad-based career experience includes serving as a technology coordinator and teacher for a charter school serving at-risk children in grades 3 - 12, an executive assistant for an investment company, and an operations and marketing coordinator for both a premier architectural firm and a geotechnical engineering company.
