Overview

Brianna Morgan is a tax and business attorney whose practice encompasses the areas of estate and wealth transfer tax planning for high net worth families and individuals, business planning for closely held family businesses, business entity selection and formation, state and federal business taxation, and the resolution of tax controversies before the Oklahoma Tax Commission and Internal Revenue Service. She also advises on commercial and private transaction taxation and tax-advantaged activities and program compliance.

The estate and trust planning and administration portion of Brianna's practice is focused on asset protection, wealth shifting, and managing the disposition of estate assets to meet client objectives while also minimizing taxes and the risk of family disputes or litigation.

The Oklahoma native earned both her undergraduate degree and master's degree from Oklahoma State University in three years, graduating summa cum laude with her B.S.B.A. in Accounting in 2022 and her Master of Science in Accounting: Data Analytics and Systems in 2023. That same year, she was awarded the Silver Medal by the Oklahoma Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Brianna graduated with highest honors from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2026, earning the Nathan Scarritt Prize for the highest academic record in her graduating class. While in law school, the Comfort Scholar served as assistant articles editor of the Oklahoma Law Review and in leadership positions with the Organization for the Advancement of Women in Law and the Christian Legal Society, was a founding member of the Parents in Law School (PAL) organization, and earned 11 American Jurisprudence Awards, including those for her achievements in Contracts, Corporations, Wills & Trusts, Unincorporated Business Entities, and Partnership Law.

In her free time, Brianna volunteers her time to coach youth softball.
