Overview

As a paralegal with McAfee & Taft's Intellectual Property Group, Lilly Myers provides legal and administrative support to attorneys whose practices focus on helping clients protect, manage, and enforce their intellectual property assets. Her responsibilities include assisting with the preparation and filing of patent, trademark, and copyright documents; maintaining intellectual property dockets and deadlines; coordinating filings and correspondence; handling maintenance fee payments for U.S. patents and annuities for foreign patents and applications; conducting research; and supporting intellectual property matters through all stages of prosecution, enforcement, litigation, and portfolio management.

Lilly earned her bachelor's degree in liberal arts with a minor in pre-law from the University of Central Oklahoma in 2023 and began her legal career in 2024. Her prior career experience includes working in hospitality and as a substitute teacher in Tulsa Public Schools.
