Overview

Brittany Stewart provides paralegal support for attorneys whose practices are concentrated in energy and oil & gas law and litigation. Her primary responsibilities, which focus on trial preparation from inception to conclusion, include maintaining litigation files, document management, coordinating and responding to discovery requests, reviewing discovery, scheduling and summarizing depositions, preparing and filing pleadings, docketing, preparing and organizing documents and exhibits for trial, and assisting attorneys at trial.

Prior to joining McAfee & Taft in 2026, Brittany worked as a litigation paralegal at several other Oklahoma-based law firms, where she gained valuable experience in wide range of legal areas, including consumer and business debt-related litigation, business torts, insurance disputes, and broad-based civil litigation. Her career experience also includes working as a case manager and paralegal for a criminal defense firm for two years.

Brittany holds her paralegal certification from Thomson Reuters.
