Overview

Annette Strother has more than 25 years of legal experience and provides extensive support to attorneys engaged in business transactions, real estate, estate planning, bankruptcy, environmental, and oil and gas litigation. Her responsibilities include drafting and filing pleadings with courts, preparing bankruptcy petitions and schedules, organizing documents for discovery production, and formation of transactional documents.

Before joining McAfee & Taft in 2000, Annette worked as a legal assistant for an environmental/oil and gas litigation firm in Oklahoma City for 10 years.

Annette holds a bachelor's degree in theology from Hillsdale College (now known as Randall University).
