Overview

Madona Vasquez is a certified paralegal who provides comprehensive legal support to trial lawyers whose practices are focused on complex civil litigation, class actions, high-stakes tort litigation, and high-exposure product liability litigation. Her responsibilities include maintaining litigation files, drafting and filing pleadings and other legal documents, conducting research, reviewing and summarizing discovery, coordinating and responding to discovery requests, coordinating experts and witnesses, docketing and scheduling, preparing and organizing documents and exhibits for trial, and assisting attorneys at trial.

Madona joined McAfee & Taft in 2025, bringing with her more than 14 years' experience working for three Tulsa-area law firms in the areas of insurance defense and personal injury litigation, and an additional year's experience working on antitrust and complex litigation matters with lawyers in the Office of the Oklahoma of Oklahoma Attorney General's Consumer Protection Unit.

Madona graduated with her bachelor's degree in paralegal studies from Kaplan University in Davenport, Iowa, and her MBA, with honors, from Oklahoma Wesleyan University in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. She also earned her certified paralegal (CP) credentials from NALA – The Paralegal Association in 2018.
