To our valued clients, partners and friends:

We at McAfee & Taft are aware of and understand the significant challenges faced by all from the rapid spread of the COVID-19 virus. Our first priority is for the safety of our clients and colleagues as well as continuing to meet your legal needs on an uninterrupted basis.

McAfee & Taft remains fully operational with our attorneys and staff working seamlessly at all locations, whether in office or remotely. Our systems and capabilities permit us to be as accessible and available to you as we have always been. We have capabilities for phone or video conferences and can rapidly share documents to ensure that communication is not disrupted.

Additionally, as a resource to you, we have established a COVID-19 Resource Center on our McAfee & Taft website:

We will maintain current information regarding impact of the COVID-19 virus on industries, governmental regulation, tax relief, labor issues, federal stimulus and support, and any new developments. We encourage you to utilize these resources, and as always we are available to assist you in navigating the challenging issues all of our businesses will face in these uncertain times.

Thank you for your trust and partnership with McAfee & Taft.

Sincerely,

Michael F. Lauderdale
